

BEAUTY IN WALLS.—During the last few years such an improvement has been made in the art of interior decoration, that to-day the walls of almost any house may be made beautiful at a small expense, provided one has the taste and lives within reach of a first-class dealer in wall-paper.

Believing that many in Lincoln county were anxious to make the interior of their houses brighter and pleasanter, even if they expected to live in them but a short time, Poujade has obtained, through experienced buyers, of good taste, buying in the best markets in the United States, a stock of wall-paper that is superior in quality of paper and in richness, beauty and variety of patterns, to any stock ever before brought into the county. His stock is complete in every detail. No better paper can be bought in San Francisco, or in New York. Parties recently from Salt Lake who had made extensive purchases of the leading houses there, were much surprised to see what they declared to be a more beautiful assortment of paper, and at lower prices, than they could buy for cash in Salt Lake City. Poujade now has his stock in such order that it may be examined without the least trouble or confusion. Everybody is invited to call and examine the beautiful patterns, whether intending to buy or not.

The "Red Eagle" spread his wings and tooted his horn on Saturday evening last. He began his eulogy by apologizing for his non-appearance on his regular Wednesday evening, by saying that a very pleasant social event occurred on that night which called away several of the county officials, who, he said, were infected, like himself, with a sort of itching for Senatorial honors, and he did not wish to take any advantage of their absence and pour hot shot in the works while the officers were away. Now that the evenings are rather cool for outdoor exercises, we would suggest to the "old man" that he hire a hall or else house his circus up, and "close the campaign" until warm weather returns again.

AGAIN a report is sent out that Ben Tasker has been killed in Arizona. The report as to Ben having been killed is sent out from Salt Lake City. If the news had been sent out from the scene of the difficulty, in Arizona, there might be some reliance placed in the report, but it coming from Salt Lake makes it look somewhat suspicious and very little credence can be placed in its authenticity. The reports heretofore circulated as in regard to Tasker's death have proven false, and the one sent out from Salt Lake will most likely prove likewise.

Our market is well supplied with apples. The apples from around Fillmore, Utah, are good, while those from Dixie are small and wormy. The people of lower Utah must have done something to anger the Lord, that he should fill their apples with worms. They, in turn, so as to destroy the ungody, bring their apples to Pioche and sell them to the Gentiles, who eateth the wormy fruit, and the worms getting in their stomachs, devour the vital powers, thus causing the ungody to die and descend.

THERE were considerable growling by those who went to pay their taxes on Monday. They were all under the impression that they had too much taxes to pay. They couldn't see into it. However, they had the pleasure of a good growl and that was worth considerable. A person always feels much better after a good growl.

OFF TO WORK.—On Monday R. S. Clapp and his party of assistants left for Quinn Canyon, where they will start in surveying the line dividing Lincoln and Nye counties. The line to be surveyed extends clear to the California line. The new instrument accompanied the Judge. It is the chief factor in the work to be done.

ACCORDING to the amount of taxes paid by some of our ranchers on their stock, and the amount which they recently sold said stock for, it really looks as though when they gave in to the assessor the amount for taxation they were not aware of how much stock they really did own.

The Mendota mine, we are glad to state, has improved greatly the last week. There is more ore in sight at present than there has been in the mine for months. This ore is of a high grade, and is galena; just what the furnace requires to work the ore from the Day mine.

P. VALLEJO writes up from Calico District, California, that the rebellious ores of Bristol District can be successfully worked. He states that the same character of rock is now being worked in Calico District.

THERE are a couple of pretty landscape oil paintings on exhibition at Dr. Alexander's drug store. The painting was executed by Mrs. J. A. Burrows and are offered for sale at five dollars each.

AFFAIRS at Bristol are quietly jogging along. The people there are getting in goods and preparing for starting of the furnace. Many of the old Bristolians will return to that place.

THERE will be services held at the Catholic Church at the usual hour Sunday morning, and Sabbath-school in the afternoon.

BULLIONVILLE AND PANACA DOTS.

About twelve tons of concentrations have been shipped from Conder Canyon.

The ducks now are scared along the slough. Those Sparks' boys have either killed or frightened them all away.

In all probability, the Smelting Company may resume operations about next June. It is hoped that such will be the case.

R. D. McLane and R. Zacho are now busy at work raising a ditch so as to carry water high enough for their tables for concentrating.

George Odell left yesterday morning for Salt Lake, by way of St. George, where he has gone to dispose of goods to Woolley, Lund & Co., of the latter place.

Fred Godhe, accompanied by his sister, returned to Bullionville. Miss Godhe will remain in Pioche, till after the great event, when she will return to Salt Lake.

Bro. Gentry returned to Bullionville last evening from the railroad. He lost six head of horses on his way to the terminus, but after a three-days search found them.

The Italians who purchased a team and left for Arizona about six weeks since, have returned to Bullionville, and concluded they do not want anything south. They intend remaining in Bullionville this winter.

J. R. Duff and J. F. Ryan passed through Bullionville on their return from Chief District. They intend putting on a number of men this coming week, and if the mines continue to improve, will erect a mill.

A letter has been received in Bullionville from Frank Matthews, the forger of checks on the Smelting Company, stating that he was then on his way to Mexico. He is a nice young man, and is very dexterous with a pen.

Miss Kate Courtney, who is better known as the Clover schoolmarm, has been spending several days with us. She left for Clover the last of this week. Bishop Terry will now frequently cross the line and preach at Clover.

Conder Canyon is the only lively place in this vicinity. Mase Dixon and his partners are making money out of the tailings. The tailings are rich and assay from $30 to $50. It is very cold in the canyon and the flume freezes at night.

US PANACAS are willing to acknowledge that the Gentiles are of some little value. During last Saturday many of us would have been unable to pay our taxes if it had not been for taking our vegetables to Pioche and disposing of them to the ungody.

Before closing down, the furnace at Bullionville cleaned up pretty thoroughly. There is not any wood, coal or ore to be seen about the premises. Everything has been worked up. There are only 30 tons of fine dust left. This is working pretty close.

"The San Francisco Post published an interview with Captain John Codman on the Mormon question, in which the Captain starts the novel idea that it is the Mormon women who should be punished for polygamy, and not the men."—(Beaver Record. The Captain has probably several wives himself, and in his opinion, the women ought to be punished severely for marrying such an old goose as he is. The Captain is right.

There has been quite a little excitement in Bullionville this last week. A young member of our church, aged about 19 years, had the presumption of calling and waiting on a young Gentile lady, sweet sixteen. The young lady's cruel father, seeing the young Mormon around the premises, and paying considerable attention to his daughter, demanded of the youth an explanation of his business, at the same time ordering the young man from his home. The young man, with the courage of a true Mormon, when there is a young lady in question, refused to go, so the old man goes into the back room, and the young man not wishing to fill an untimely hole in the ground, skinned out; but returns next day, on a trip to the ranch, when he went into the house. On the return of the old folks the young Mormon got out of the back door. The old folks say, that, in spite of them, the children are bound to get together. We are glad to note our young Mormon boys going for the Gentile girls. Before two months pass there will be several Gentile girls married to Mormon boys. That's right, boys, keep on converting the Gentile girls, and thus save their souls from everlasting damnation.

The Catlin family have moved down to St. George, Utah. This was the largest family of children in Pioche. There were so many of them that Mrs. Catlin would tell that she really didn't know how many she did have.

JACK GILMER and Jot Travis arrived in town on Tuesday. Gilmer was on a business tour looking to his interest in Bristol and this vicinity. He left for the terminus on Wednesday afternoon.

FATHER GILGILLAN returned from Eureka on Tuesday evening's stage. He will remain in Pioche for a couple of weeks before returning to Silver Reef.

The weather was very cold the early part of the week. Hot stoves were all the go. They were the friends of both the rich and the poor.

OUR BOSTON BETTERS.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 8, 1883.

Ed. Record: It is said that there is nothing half so sweet in life as Love's Young Dream, but any spinster of 50 summers knows that a bean that appears when one is about 45 is far more welcome. Boston has done her little best in the way of entertainments this season and her "little best" is good. Lillian Norton, the great American prima donna, has appeared, and indeed hundreds were turned away, unable to get even standing room. This charming singer is distinctively American, being not only indigenous to the soil, but having received her musical education at the N. E. Conservatory. Booth is here driving people distracted as of yore. Stoddard is presenting a very interesting course of lectures at the Music Hall. Mathew Arnold lectured last week on "numbers." A good many people were disappointed that the subject was changed from "Emerson," but few tickets were returned on that account. I am very sorry to say that this great man had some faults of articulation and was a little difficult to be understood at times. As for his subject that is for the world to meditate on.

By the way I suppose you are more or less interested in the condition of folks, generally, at the "Hub." There is nothing on earth more pathetic than a visit to the "Home for Consumptives." When the invalids are first taken here they are placed on the third floor; gradually as they become weaker they are removed to the second; a few months later to the third and the last move of all is made when the invalid is taken out for his last rest in the beautiful shade of Forest Hill. You can hardly imagine anything more pathetic than the hope of these poor souls that they will be better soon, when in fact every one of them in this special home is doomed. With what a strange and pitiful tenacity people cling to this thing called life.

Governor Butler's constituents have bidden him a touching farewell and departed for other scenes—so to speak. I must confess to a good deal of curiosity as to what Governor Butler himself will do next. There is really not the slightest doubt that this interesting old gentleman will appear on the political stage again after he has a little time to recuperate.

A charming concert was given at the Conservatory last week by Lillian Norton, Otto Bendix and Dr. Louis Mars. Miss Norton's musical career is a good deal like a fairy story in which Dr. Tourjee was the fairy godfather.

RAY.

THE stage stations at Ward and Ely, says the Ward Reflex, have been discontinued and a new one established at Schallenberg's, twelve miles north of Ward. This knocks two stations into one, and leaves only one station between Robinson Summit and Parker's ranch. It is only about a fifty-mile drive from Schallenberg's to Parker's by way of Ward.

THE rumor in Bullionville is to the effect that there are about a dozen weddings soon to take place in Pioche. It is hoped that the rumor in regard to some of the parties are true, for they were old enough, and big enough, to have gotten married thirty years ago.

OUR merchants are taking advantage of the low rates for freight over the Union Pacific and now have large supplies en route here. J. Eisenmann & Co. received during the week a large lot of hardware, hardwood and wagon material.

WM. B. SHORT of Bullionville, is the only man in Lincoln county drawing a pension from the Government. Short was wounded in the right ankle, and receives $15 per month. He rose from a private to Colonel of an Illinois regiment.

R. ADAMS and family departed for their new home at Los Angeles on Monday. We are surprised that the young men of Pioche permitted so many pretty young ladies to leave here. It certainly does not speak very well for them.

A REPORT has reached town, via grapevine telegraph, that Rock Droulette, who has been keeping the saloon at Royal City for the last six years, died in Salt Lake City the other day.

Mrs. BUCKLEY, who has been residing at the junction of Pioche and Hoffman streets, died at about one o'clock Sunday morning. She was buried the following day.

W. J. TOWNSEND passed through Pioche to take a trip over the stage lines in southern Utah owned by Gilmer, Salisbury & Co.

AL JONES, formerly of Cherry Creek, Nye county, writes from Ohio that his little girl, aged five months, recently died.

The concentrations at the Dry Valley mill, with the exception of about ten tons, have all been shipped to Salt Lake.

The tax on the proceeds of mines for the quarter ending September 30, 1883, is now due and payable.

NEXT Thursday will be Thanksgiving Day. Don't forget to render up prayers for the week.

THE Eureka Sentinel says Mrs. W. E. Griffin is reported quite ill in San Francisco.

Senator Vance of North Carolina, in speaking of his career in Washington, said recently: "I was mighty high dead to get here, but I'll be hanged if I am not higher dead to get away."

Among the usages of the females of Africa the following is related by Richard Lanier, in his narrative of Clapperton's last expedition: "When an infant dies, the mother invariably wears, suspended from the neck, and reaching to the bosom, a figure of a child, about six inches in length, and of proportional thickness, which is carved in wood, and regarded by the people as a token of mourning. This is worn for an indefinite length of time, according to the inclination of the bereaved parent, and many women do not cast it aside until the expiration of six, eight, or even twelve months, during which they chat to and caress the wooden figure, as if it had been infused with life and motion, possessed of all the playfulness and endearing manner which distinguish their offspring when alive, and capable of enjoying the effect of maternal tenderness. This singular custom is confined exclusively to Yoruba."

A clergyman in Tennessee is known as the "satisfying preacher." Whenever a church begins to grow tired of its regular pastor the "satisfying preacher" is sent for. And so atrociously bad is he that, after hearing him once or twice, the congregation is entirely "satisfied" to keep the pastor it has. A new avenue of usefulness is thus opened to poor preachers. They will act as a sort of counterpoise to those peripatetic preachers whose showy eloquence often causes a congregation to be dissatisfied with its humdrum pastor.

The old Catholic Church in Spain, it is said, has more than doubled within the three years of its existence, having grown from three congregations to eight, and several more are in course of formation. It has six ordained native clergy, and has no foreigners among its workers; also, a number of other congregations are seeking admission to its ranks. In the judgment of many this "Spanish" church is therefore of especial importance to Spain.

A rural young lady visited the Philadelphia Zoological Garden, and when she returned home she told her mother that one of the monkeys spoke to her. A girl who can't distinguish a dude from a monkey should be given a few lessons in natural history. The monkey is the most intelligent looking, but doesn't wear such ridiculous clothes.

CARRIER RAVENS.—Successful experiments have lately been made at Coblenz in the training of ravens as scariers birds in place of pigeons. The latter are more subject to the attack of birds of prey than ravens. The trained ravens were made to fly a distance of forty miles, and their performances gave much satisfaction.

A little chick of four years, at Pawtucket, R. I., surprised his mother the other night by adding the following to his evening prayer: "God bless papa and mamma, and Aunt Lizzie, and Baber Hiram, and Tilly, and all the other kids."

The Atlanta Constitution has been informed that the esteemed President in his new portrait is represented as smiling the sweet and heavenly smile of a man who had just swallowed a warm fritter walloped in New Orleans molasses.

A Pennsylvania mule who lived in a coal mine for nine years without seeing daylight was hoisted up the other day, and his first act was to kicked a boy sky-high. Mules know what daylight is for as well as any one else.—[Free Press.]

During the six months ended November 1st 5,195,100 pounds of bullion have been shipped from the Wood River mines, Idaho. During the same period $1,550,000 worth of ore has been shipped from the same region.

A woman in Chicago had her child christened by three different clergymen in order to receive benefits from three different church funds. Organized charity tripped her up.

Admiral Porter says that our navy now is "mostly officers and water." He appears to have forgotten poker and alcohol.—[N. Y. Graphic.]

The Philadelphia Times moves that the gentle Mr. Sullivan rub his face with burnt cork and go into Virginia.
